

SYMPHONY

TACOMA

SARAH IOANNIDES
MUSIC DIRECTOR

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SHARON FREEMAN

Allen Renaissance, Inc. (ret.)

Sharon took ballet and tap-dancing lessons from age six to sixteen. Her love of classical dance led to her appreciation of classical music. Both parents played the piano and sang in choirs, and they took Sharon and her brothers to symphony concerts while living in Washington, D.C.

After working years in family counseling, running a grant program at Clover Park Technical College, and retiring as an assistant division director for Strengthening Families at the Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department, Sharon is using her skills to serve others through active participation with non-profit community service organizations.

As a Symphony Tacoma Board member and season ticket holder, Sharon hopes to use her networks to inspire others to attend performances. Among her interests are traveling, reading, and attending concerts.
