DIANA GREENE

University Place Presbyterian Church

Rev. Dr. Diana Greene is the Minister of Worship Arts at University Place Presbyterian Church. An organist, conductor and music teacher, she is Orff and Kodaly certified. She has performed at Carnegie Hall on multiple occasions with the celebrated Robert Shaw, and was selected as a featured conductor for his film series Preparing a Masterpiece: Beethoven's Missa Solemnis, produced by Carnegie Hall Productions.

Youth choirs under Diana's direction have performed for national and international events, including Baptist World Alliance, the White House Christmas Tour, Emeril Live, and Carnegie Hall. Diana has spent a lifetime discovering and developing ordinary talent to be used in extraordinary ways.
