NATHAN ROSENBAUM

Commercial Real Estate

Originally from Houston, Nathan has been passionate about music all his life. His mom was a classically trained pianist, and he and his wife met in the chorus for their high school musical (Brigadoon). Currently, Nathan sings with BlueStreet Voices, a Seattle-based jazz choir.

Professionally, Nathan is active in commercial real estate. He loves to travel, play racket sports and bridge (the card game), and spend time with his family, including his wife, daughter, and their menagerie—Meeko (golden retriever), Cocoa (poodle) and Disco (a Sphinx cat).
