JERRY YANG

MultiCare Health System

Despite a lack of musical talent, Jerry enjoys music of all kinds, including orchestral music. He believes music is a key component of personal health and wellness.

Originally from Alabama, Jerry settled in the Pacific Northwest with his wife in 2019 to join MultiCare Health System, one the largest health systems in the state. As Chief Financial Officer of Operations for MultiCare, he is responsible for its care delivery platforms, which includes hospitals and physician clinics, to provide the highest value outcomes for the communities MultiCare serves.

In addition to being on the Symphony Tacoma board, Jerry also is on the advisory board for University of Washington-Tacoma's School of Urban Studies. At home, he enjoys spending time with his wife and small daughter, road cycling, and enjoying the many natural beauties of the PNW.
